The editorial department of tourdesigner is responsible for compiling the EUROPE magazine. Sie Through the magazines Africa & Asia this department has gained many years of expertise in the tourism, country and travel sector. The editorial staff only work together with specialists from the countries, travel experts and insiders in the tourism industry and do their research on the ground in order to guarantee the high standards they have set themselves. It is only through this method that suitable articles for specific target groups and the specific Tourdesigner mix can be ensured. Each magazine – and this is the unique aspect thereof – is closely linked to the internet portal www.tourdesigner.de, which is a modern collaboration of Print and Internet. Through this interlinking, tourdesigner has an exceptional position amongst Travel Magazines.
